

Hawthorne, Griffin and Sutton Win

Incumbents had a field day in Hempstead County voting yesterday, and all were re-elected by a wide margin.

Re-elected were Harry Hawthorne, treasurer; Jimmie Griffin, sheriff; Carter Sutton, assessor and John L. Wilson, municipal judge.

In the state races Hempstead voters went for Orval E. Faubus for governor; Nathan Gordon, Lt. Gov.; Kelly Bryant, secretary of state; Jimmy "Red" Jones, auditor; Mrs. Nancy Hall, treasurer; Bruce Bennett, attorney general; Sam Jones, land commissioner; Judge George Rose Smith for associate justice; Frank Holt for associate justice; J. W. Fulbright for U.S. Senator.

In district races the county went overwhelmingly for Royce Weisenberger for Chancellor and pretty well split the vote between Goodson and Denman for prosecuting attorney.

The trend was established early in local races. Sheriff Jimmie Griffin, seeking a third term, defeated newcomer Ralph Saunders 1,382 to 1,232.

Harry Hawthorne, asking a sixth year in office, handily defeated Mitchell by 3,375 to 1,937; and Carter Sutton, asking a second year as assessor, walloped Lahroy by a vote of 3,727 to 1,589. In the only city race on the ballot John L. Wilson defeated E. Atkins for municipal judge 647 to 647. Mr. Wilson was appointed to complete the unexpired term of Judge W. K. Lemley who died earlier this year. For precinct votes see tabulation elsewhere in this issue.

Unofficial Returns in Nevada Co.

In Nevada County complete returns showed the trend about the same as the rest of Arkansas in state offices.

Governor Faubus led the ticket; Nathan Gordon was a two to one favorite for his 10th term; Kelly Bryant polled 1,565 votes, just out the total of all his opponents; Jimmy Red Jones was far ahead in the auditor's race as was Mrs. Nancy Hall in the race for treasurer.

Sam Jones had a 1779 to 1400 lead for land commissioner; Frank Holt ran away with his court race, 2,231 to 929; George Rose Smith 1,728 to 1,475 for supreme court justice; Bill Fulbright took a 2,055 to 1,232 victory.

In district races Royce Weisenberger of Hope polled 2,412 votes to 893 for Dick Huie; Prescott's Bill Denman Jr. got 2,412 votes to 1,012 for his opponent, John W. Goodson.

Philes Orren was defeated for County Judge by Mack Hillery. The vote was 1,932 to 1,600.

Horace Hale beat Red Zumwalt 2,256 to 1,263 for sheriff.

For Tax Assessor A. L. Wicker who over Fred Wren, 2,184 to 1,427.

For Treasurer, Tom W. White 1,501 and Roy Loomis 1,584.

For representative incumbent C. O. Wahlquist was second man on the ticket and will go into a runoff with R. C. McBrayer. The vote gave McBrayer 1,547; Wahlquist 1,197 and Jewel A. Wicker 1,197.

Justice of Peace, Odell Garrett 1,013 and Al Pyle 632.

Weisenberger, Goodson Are Dist. Winners

On a basis of unofficial returns from the nine county district Royce Weisenberger of Hope defeated Dick Huie, Arkadelphia, almost two to one for chancellor of the Sixth District.

The unofficial vote was 20,026 to 10,534.

Mr. Weisenberger carried every county but Clark which is Mr. Huie's home county.

In the prosecuting attorney race John W. Goodson, Texarkana, apparently has won in the 8th judicial district over Bill Denman Jr. of Prescott. The voting was close.

The unofficial count gives Goodson about 900 votes over his opponent, although Mr. Denman carried all but two counties in the five county district.

Heavy voting in Miller County and a fairly even split in Hempstead gave the Texarkana attorney the office.

There were only 350 votes out in Clark County, not enough to make a difference in the outcome.

Race Case to Be Heard in U. S. Court

ALBANY, Ga. (AP) — Racial tension—how much or how little—was the key issue today in a federal court fight over Negro mass demonstrations against segregation.

Police Chief Laurie Pritchett faced more cross-examination on his assertion that mass marches and picketing by Negroes created a tense, explosive atmosphere.

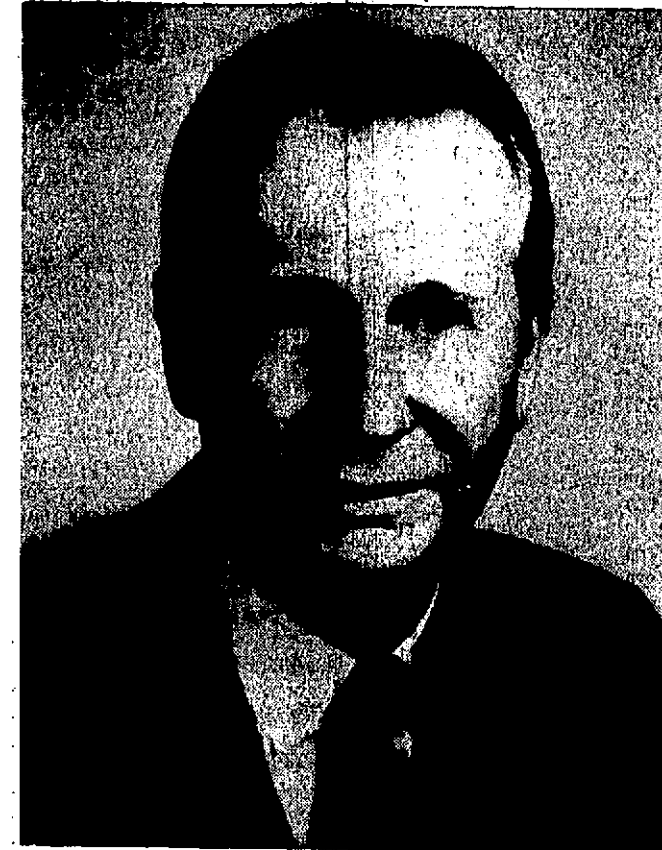

Pritchett is a principal witness in the city's attempt to enjoin permanently several Negro leaders and groups from staging or promoting marches, picketing, boycotting and similar protest activity in this racial test spot.

The case is being heard by U.S. Dist. Judge J. Robert Elliott. Even as the legal battle went on, 39 more Negroes were jailed for prayer-singing demonstrations at the library and city hall Tuesday and Tuesday night.

The demonstrators, mostly teenagers, pushed to more than 300 the number of arrests in the current series of protests. Since December, more than 1,100 arrests have been made as a result of demonstrations.

In yesterday's proceedings, Judge Elliott was kept busy refereeing between lawyer Donald L. Hollowell, representing Negro leaders, and Asst. State Atty. Gen. E. Freeman Leveritt, counsel for city officials.

In Runoff for Secy. of State

Kelly Bryant, Hope, led the ticket in the race of secretary of state and will go into the runoff with Milton Willis of Van Buren.

U.S. Launches Big Balloon, Two Monkeys

MOFFETT FIELD, Calif. (AP) — The United States launched a huge balloon today with two monkeys and two hamsters aboard in an effort to determine the effects of cosmic rays on the animals.

A spokesman at the Ames Research Center here said the 380-foot high balloon carried a 450-pound payload on a planned 54-hour flight from Goose Bay, Labrador, to Edmonton, Alberta.

The balloon is the second in a proposed series of four launchings that are expected to provide basic research on radiation problems applicable to manned space flight.

The payload contained three separate capsules were to be exposed to about 50 per cent of primary cosmic radiation at 125,000 feet altitude.

Flour beetles, an assortment of seeds and nerve cells were in a second capsule and an emulsion pack for the National Research Council of Canada in a third capsule.

The project is conducted by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the Ames center here, the largest of NASA's research centers in the West.

Dr. Webb Haymaker, research scientist, said the first flight on July 14 was 90 per cent successful, but animal and insect passengers died on the trip.

Incumbents Win at Morrilton

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — All incumbents were re-elected in Conway County races in the Democratic primary Tuesday, including Sheriff Marlin Hawkins, target of a campaign by the Better Government League and the weekly Morrilton Democrat.

Gene Wirges, editor of the Democrat, had charged Hawkins was responsible for voting irregularities and running the county by boss rule. Hawkins denied the charges and said his popularity was due to service rendered the people.

Magnolia Plant Sale Announced

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP) — Purchase of Unit Structure, Inc., a Magnolia firm that manufactures laminated glue products, by the Koppers Co. of Pittsburgh, Pa., was announced Tuesday.

Acquisition by Koppers of the firm was jointly announced by Max Hanisch, president of Unit Structures, and Douglas Grymes, a vice president of Koppers.

Details of the sale were not announced. Grymes said Hanisch has been made a vice president of the Koppers Co. He said Unit Structures will be operated under the wood-preserving division of Koppers.

Unprecedented Fifth Term Victory Rolled Up by Orval Faubus

Bennett, Hall Jones, Smith Are Winners

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bruce Bennett, who left the attorney general's office to run for governor in 1960, apparently won the office back without a runoff in Tuesday's Democratic primary.

(AP) Returns from 2,223 of 2,348 precincts for Atty. Gen.

Bennett 178,459 boyce 110,374 Thomas 33,459 Witt 18,195

Among the incumbents in state offices, Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon and Auditor Jimmie Jones won renomination easily. Supreme Court Justice George Rose Smith and Land Commissioner Sam Jones were apparent victors in close races.

Kelly Bryant of Hope and Milton Willis of Van Buren headed into a runoff for secretary of state. The office is being vacated by Nancy Hall, who won easily in a race for treasurer.

Atty. Gen. Frank Holt had easy sailing for Supreme Court Pos. 4. Bennett beat Sam Boyce and Thorp Thomas, both assistants to Holt, and Dave Witt of Little Rock.

Incomplete returns gave Boyce 90,172 votes, Thomas 25,990 and Witt 15,030.

Bryant, executive secretary of the Arkansas Sheriffs Association, led the secretary of state ticket, but the total vote was widely split among four candidates.

Incomplete returns gave Bryant 95,795 votes, Willis 75,061, Avon Phillips of Lonoke 48,456 and Carroll Durham of Wynne 38,345.

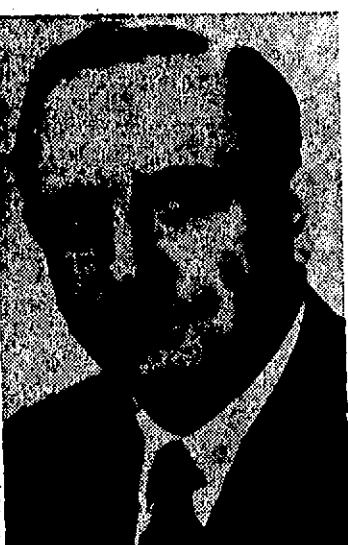

Justice Smith staved off a serious threat from Tom Gentry, a former attorney general.

Smith had 149,278 votes and Gentry 129,073 in incomplete returns.

Jimmie Jones swamped W. B. McSwain of Little Rock, Mrs. Hall overran J. H. Mitchell of Batesville, Holt defeated J. Fred Jones of North Little Rock, Gordon whipped Wallace Hurley of Camden and Sam Jones edged Paul Hanshaw of Jonesboro, the man he beat for a third term in 1960.

Jimmie Jones also was seeking a fourth term. Gordon has been lieutenant governor since 1947.

Broken Water Main Is Fixed

A break in a 12 inch water main in the 800 block of South Walnut St. was repaired shortly after noon today but not before an estimated 300,000 gallons of water was lost. The main was a feeder leading to the elevated storage tank at 9th and Walnut. The cause of the break has not been determined.

Governor Has Majority Over Five Opponents

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas voters ignored warnings of a dictatorship threat and gave Gov. Orval E. Faubus an unprecedented fifth term in Tuesday's Democratic primary.

Faubus polled over 52 per cent of the incomplete vote to win the nomination without a runoff for the fourth straight time.

(AP) returns from 2,243 of 2,348 precincts for governor:

Faubus 191,943 McMath 74,601 Alford 75,195 Whitten 20,089

Coffelt 5,099 Cox 2,044

Sen. J. William Fulbright, Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon and Auditor Jimmie Jones won renomination easily. Supreme Court Justice George Rose Smith and Land Commissioner Sam Jones were apparent victors in close races.

Secretary of State Nancy Hall was elected Treasurer and Atty. Gen. Frank Holt won Supreme Court Pos. 4. Bruce Bennett, who left the attorney general's office two years ago to run for governor, apparently beat three opponents without a runoff.

Kelly Bryant of Hope and Milton Willis of Van Buren faced a runoff for secretary of state. Bryant led the ticket.

Kenneth Coffelt and David A. Cox — the rear runners in the governor's race — conceded early. Rep. Dale Alford and former Gov. Sid McMath, who waged a spirited but meaningless battle for second place, held back, hoping late returns from large boxes in major cities would catapult one of them into a runoff Aug. 14.

Vernon Whitten of Mount Holly, who ran a distant fourth, had no opponent.

Incomplete returns gave Alford 67,929 votes, McMath 67,242, businessman Vernon Whitten 18,610, at

Good Crowd for Election Returns

Hope Star presented its biennial Election Party in South Walnut St. Tuesday night just as it has for every Democratic primary for the last 30 years. The show started off with a good crowd just before 8 p. m. and wound up at 11:30 with 36 of Hempstead's 38 precincts reported and all state races decided.

The newspaper extends thanks to the following who made the Election Party a success:

County Clerk Dick Turnage for furnishing local precinct returns to the tabulators in 'The Star' office.

All the election officials in the boxes throughout the county who expedited their tally sheet figures to Mr. Turnage.

Roy Anderson and A. A. Albritton who supervised the tabulation at 'The Star'.

Jack Simpson of Jack Simpson Signs, who prepared the big projection screen; Bill Davis of Davis Motor Co., 521 W. Third St., who loaned the truck on which the screen was mounted and First National Bank for permission to locate the screen on their parking lot opposite 'The Star' Building.

Radio Station KXAR, with whom 'The Star' exchange election information.

The election went off with surprising speed for a very long ballot — 40 candidates in 16 races. For the first time in history it was necessary to type out three projection slides for every precinct.

Walking is good exercise if you can manage to dodge all them who aren't walking.

5 Foreign Nations Okay Abortions

NEW YORK (AP)—At least five foreign countries permit abortion by physicians to preserve the mother's mental health or to stop her from giving birth to a deformed child.

Following is a list of seven foreign countries where abortion is permitted under various conditions.

The list was supplied from information in the book "Abortion in the United States," edited by Dr. Mary Steichen Calderone and based on a 1958 conference sponsored by the Planned Parenthood Federation of America.

Japan: A woman merely needs to request an abortion. If medical indications are demanded, it is sufficient that she states she was vomiting because of her pregnancy.

Finland, Norway, Denmark and Sweden permit abortions on three grounds:

1. Medical or therapeutic, to save the life of the mother or preserve her mental or physical well-being.

2. Humanitarian, this includes such criteria as the mother's social position and whether she is married or unmarried.

3. Eugenic, if there is good reason to believe that the child will be deformed or diseased.

Those four countries have boards of experts, both medical and lay, which review the case prior to issuing approval for the operation.

Soviet Union: In the 1920s, abortion was encouraged to some degree especially to free women for employment. However, in the 1930s a law was passed barring abortions except for strict therapeutic reasons and, in 1955, abortion laws were liberal-

Czech Reds Offer Refuge to Soblen

LONDON (AP) — Communist

Czechoslovakia was reported today to have offered Robert A. Soblen refuge but the fate of the runaway Soviet spy rested with the British government.

Home Secretary Henry Brooke is expected to act this week on pleas of Soblen and his friends to grant him political asylum in Britain or let him go to another country to escape a life term in U.S. prison.

Laborite legislator Eric Fletcher disclosed Monday night Czechoslovakia had offered Soblen a haven. There were other reports that Ghana might be willing to grant him asylum.

Brooke, 58, who became home secretary only two weeks ago, was under pressure from several sources to allow the 61-year-old Lithuanian-born psychiatrist to avoid return to New York.

In addition to considering Soblen's application to remain in Britain, Brooke promised to study a plea by three British legislators to allow Soblen to choose his own destination on compassionate grounds. Soblen suffers from incurable blood cancer.

Should Brooke reject the appeals, Soblen would be returned to the custody of the Israeli government-owned El Al airline, and Soblen's fate once again would be in the hands of the Israeli government.

Release of Boudiaf Is Forced

Foreign Aid Bill Signed by Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President

Kennedy signed today the $4,672,000,000 foreign aid authorization bill, and said he could not emphasize to strongly how important it is.

Among other things, the measure permits Kennedy to continue limited aid to Communist countries—a point disputed bitterly in Congress.

Kennedy signed the measure as a large bipartisan congressional delegation looked on.

The authorization measure includes a four-year $2.4-billion Alliance for Progress program in Latin America.

The bill's authorization for foreign aid this fiscal year is $206.5 million less than Kennedy's original request. It still faces the possibility of much sharper cutting when the appropriations bill comes up. The appropriation measure provides the actual money for which the authorization bill simply sets ceilings.

This year's program, for instance, carries $1.5 billion for military assistance to allies and $1.25 billion in economic development loans which were authorized last year.

The authorization bill's passage was a victory for the administration in a fight to kill a proposed Senate amendment to deny aid except surplus farm commodities to such Communist nations as Poland and Yugoslavia.

Kennedy retains authority to extend aid behind the Iron Curtain if he finds, and reports to Congress, that it is vital to U.S. security, that the aid will strengthen a country's independence from Moscow, and that the recipient nation is not controlled by the international Communist bloc.

The bill directs Kennedy to suspend foreign aid to any country which has expropriated U.S.-owned properties since Jan. 1, 1962, and falls within six months to take appropriate steps to provide adequate compensation.

to meet Coffelt 4,672 and farmer Cox 1,854.

Fulbright had 203,059 to 107,126 for his conservative opponent, Winston Chandler of Little Rock.

Faubus started slow, but he had a clear majority before 50 precincts had reported and his margin mounted steadily until it peaked around midnight at about 25,000 votes. At that point he led the ticket in every county.

The big boxes whittled at his lead through the early hours today. This erosion of votes prompted Faubus to withhold a victory statement.

An anticipated heavy vote failed to materialize. Hot, humid, weather and scattered showers in some areas may have kept some would-be voters away from the polls.

Early indications were that the turnout would equal 1960 when Faubus won a fourth term with 58.7 per cent of a record 407,183 votes.

The fifth term was clearly the prime issue. All five opponents hammered at it in their various ways. With one voice they contended reelection would give Faubus dictatorial control over the machinery of state government.

Faubus campaigned on his record. He cited industrial gains, increased funds for public schools and highways, higher welfare benefits and an ambitious construction program as references for another term.

Except for asserting that McMath was backed by integrationists and linking Alford with extreme segregationists, Faubus soft-pedaled the school integration issue which spread his name around the world in 1957-58 and propelled him to a record 70 per cent of the primary vote in 1958.

Faubus underestimated Alford's strength. In the closing stages of the campaign, the governor said the race was between him and McMath, his one-time political mentor.

McMath launched Faubus's career in state politics by naming him to the Highway Commission in 1949. Faubus served in the McMath administration for three years, leaving the post of highway director when McMath, bidding for a third term, was defeated by Francis Cherry in 1952.

Two years later, Faubus pieced the old McMath organization together and unseated Cherry while McMath was involved in a losing race against Sen. John L. McClellan.

Faubus and McMath broke openly when McMath criticized Faubus for using National Guard troops and closing schools in an effort to stave off integration in Little Rock in 1957-58.

Faubus said the actual break came earlier because he would not let McMath pull strings in the governor's office.

McMath retired to private law practice after the defeat by McClellan. He said he returned to politics because he, having been governor, knew better than anyone the threat posed by a fifth term.

Victory 4-H Club Meets

The Victory 4-H Club was called to order by the president, Charles McCorkle on June 14 at the clubhouse. After the roll was called, James Rowe and Nancy Stevenson led the group in the pledges. The secretary then read the minutes of the last meeting and gave the treasurers report. Jennifer Smith gave the devotion and Mrs. Sumpter led the group in prayer. A discussion was held about what the club should do in the month of August. Mr. Caldwell then told what would go on 4-H Week and what activities would take place. After singing the meeting was adjourned.

Bride-Elect Honored Saturday

Miss Sheila Foster, bride-elect of Beryl Anthony Jr. of El Dorado, was feted with a bridge luncheon Saturday, July 28 by Mrs. Charles Graham, Mrs. Tim Miller, and Mrs. George Wright of the Hope Country Club. For the party, the best of honor wore a three-piece dress and pinned a white corsage at her shoulder. After the luncheon, bridge was played at four tables with the hope for high score going to Mrs. George Peck. The hostesses presented a gift of silver to the bride-elect.

Friday Bridge Club Meets

Golden glow was seen in the home of Mrs. C. C. Lewis when entertained her Friday Bridge Club on July 27. Two tables of members joined in the afternoon play. High scorers were Mrs. Tom Miller and Mrs. M. M. McClough. An ice course was served for refreshments.

U. S. Parties Similar in Many Ways

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — James Bryce was puzzled by the Democrats and Republicans. They'd still have this Englishman guessing if he were alive now.

In his book "The American Commonwealth," he asked 74 years ago: What's the difference between the two parties? He confessed he couldn't see much. A lot of inquisitive voters will have the same trouble in this year's congressional election, while some of the others verify the conclusion of Wilfred E. Binkley.

This political scientist, writing some years ago, asked: "What motivates the voter making a decision?" He said, by and large, the decision is reached by non-logical processes.

"If there is one determining factor it is probably the climate of opinion in which the voter has lived and this was originally provided for him by his family."

He might have added this could change in moments of great national agitation, of crisis, or in an election campaign with deep emotional issues.

Unless there's an explosion before November this will be an unexciting campaign without national agitation, crisis, or emotional issues, except perhaps for older people who saw the medical care plan defeated.

Even there, although President Kennedy will stump to get more Democrats elected, his own Democrats deflated the issue for him since they must share responsibility with Republicans for killing medical care.

Just because enough of them, mostly Southerners, joined Republicans in killing that bill and other Kennedy programs, the President is in an embarrassing position in asking for more Democrats.

There was a sharp distinction in the depression days of the 1930s between the Democrats who wanted action and the stand-pat conservative Republicans.

There was also a great difference on foreign policy between the internationally minded Democrats and the isolationist Republicans before and even after World War II.

But the Republicans, who had to be led by the hand into a new world, thereafter teamed up with Democrats to support President Eisenhower's foreign policy, which was President Truman's policy, and team up now to support the same policy of Kennedy.

So, because there is no great foreign issue this year, international affairs can hardly be much of a campaign dispute.

At home the economy has slipped. This may have some effect, but not to the degree of a depression.

The two parties, without any wide emotional pressure at home or abroad for change or innovation, have reverted to what both of them truly are in any fairly

Determined to Undergo Abortion

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Finkbine, determined to prevent the birth of a child they fear will be malformed, said today they will leave Arizona to seek an abortion.

Mrs. Finkbine, 30-year-old mother of four, says that early in her pregnancy she took tranquilizers containing thalidomide, the drug blamed for the births of thousands of malformed children.

normal period: They're both conservative.

The fact that these congressional politicians think they can afford to be conservative seems to be a pretty good reflection of a broad popular complacency at this time among the voters.

in Europe, Australia and Canada. On Monday, Judge Yale McFate of State Superior Court rejected a plea by the Finkbines and Good Samaritan Hospital of Phoenix to sanction an abortion.

This morning, in a statement released by hospital administrator Stephen Morris, Finkbine said:

"Despite medical and psychiatric opinion in the case, the courts have refused to confirm that the recommended treatment would be within the framework of the law."

"There have been repeated published suggestions of prosecution of this case and since we and our physicians do not wish to undertake a solution that might be considered outside the framework of the law we have concluded to seek help in a more favorable legal climate."

Finkbine couldn't be reached for further comment, but Morris said the couple had started making preparations to leave. He said, however, that he understood the Finkbines had not decided on their destination.

All 50 states prohibit abortions, Arizona and some others, allow exceptions only if the life of the mother is endangered.

The Finkbines' suit, in which Good Samaritan Hospital joined, contended an abortion was necessary to preserve Mrs. Finkbine's health and save her life.

In rejecting the suit, Judge McFate dismissed the Maricopa (Phoenix) County attorney and the Arizona attorney general as defendants, ruling that a legal controversy did not exist.

He noted that both officials had stated in court that if the facts of the case were presented, i.e. that Mrs. Finkbine's life was in danger, there would be no ground for prosecution.

Finkbine's reference to "suggestions of prosecution" apparently referred to a statement Sunday by Deputy County Atty Felix Gordon. He said his office could prosecute even if Superior Court should decide that the abortion fell within the law.

Judge McFate allowed the plaintiffs 10 days to amend their complaint, but attorney Walter Chelitz said there was no time for that.

Mrs. Finkbine has been pregnant 2½ months.

The couple's decision to leave the state followed a conference of hospital authorities, doctors and lawyers.

Mrs. Finkbine, better known here as "Miss Sherri," star of "Romper Room," a children's television show, did not attend Monday's hearing. Her doctor has ordered her to remain in seclusion.

DOROTHY DIX

Wife Wonders What Husband Is Up To

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband and I built our marriage around a hardware store that was the hub of our wheel and a little gold mine to boot. We were behind the counter 10 hours out of the 24. The only time I ever took off was to give birth to our three children. My husband converted a storage room into a nursery and as soon as I was on my feet, the kids were there in it and me back of the counter again. It was often midnight before I could get the house cleaned, cook next day's dinner and do for my babies. But, like I say, the business prospered.

Then, all of a sudden he sold it without so much as asking me. Said he wanted to do nothing for six months and that was that. Since then he's been a changed man; secretive, penny-pinching and irritable. What he's done with our money, where he goes, whom he sees, remains a mystery. We live in a world of silence and it's driving me nuts. He won't even talk to the children. Never having had my name on our bank account or business, I don't know where we stand. If I ask him he blows his top. His queer actions make me fear he's hiding something from me. I told him last week that if he didn't open up, I'd write you. He walked out banging the door after him. He has an awful temper so I must be careful of what I do and say. How can I best handle my problem? — Fearful

Dear Fearful: You'll have to get at the cause before you can find the cure. There could be several explanations. Jot down the probable and improbable loss of the money through foolish investments; gambling; another woman; a crooked deal. Use your feminine intuition, work by the process of elimination, pray about and keep your own counsel. If your husband doesn't give you money, it's logical to suppose that, since he was once generous, he hasn't got it. Should this prove the case, charge it off to profit and loss, find a job (you've had enough experience to land a pay-one) and get on with your life. Moping won't bring the money back.

Should the cause prove another woman, weigh the consequences before you take action. Do you love your husband enough to fight for him? Does your religion recognize divorce? Would the children miss him? The answers to these questions are factors in your decision. The last probability on your list—that of a tie-in with the underworld, will be hard to prove. You may have to call upon a relative or family friend for help: this is a man's job. Should your husband be the fall guy for crooks, ask your minister to talk to him and, failing that, the district attorney. I've suggested four possible reasons for your husband's strange behavior. You know him. I don't. Keep on digging till you find the truth.

117 - Dear Helen: Despite eight years of marriage and two lovely children, our son and his wife continue two irresponsible kids on a perpetual lark. It's on with the dance have fun while you can. My husband an I, not they, pay the piper. We buy their food, foot their rent and co-sign notes. Our boy is 31, the daughter-in-law 30. Now he's quit his last job and the note we co-signed is coming due. My husband and I realize we've done them and ourselves a grave injustice by forever bailing them out—but could we let the children go hungry? Well, I guess we did it for our boy's sake too. Should we go on helping them? -Soft-hearted

118 - Dear Soft: It's no kindness to your son and his family to perpetuate this aid. All it has done is undermine their independence, weaken their sense of responsibility and drug their conscience. Help them to help themselves by equipping them for their jobs in life. Send your son to a trade school. Give your daughter in law a course in home economics; then say, "This is it. You're on your own from here on. No more dole."

119 - Dear Helen: My husband has been recently transferred from a big city to a small town and I find it difficult to adjust, especially when it comes to the neighbors. Their ways are not my ways, nor their life mine. Should I be a hypocrite and make like we are the same, or draw the blinds and turn hermit? -Willing to Try

Dynamite Plot Caused Crash in Missouri

By FRANK CORMIER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board ruled officially today that the May 22 crash of a Continental Airlines jet which took 45 lives near Unionville, Mo., was the result of a dynamite plot. Summarizing weeks of investigation, the CAB said "evaluation of all the evidence leads logically to the conclusion that a dynamite device was placed in the used towel bin of the right rear lavatory with the express intent to destroy the aircraft."

121 - Making no direct reference to the culprit, the CAB merely said that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was still investigating. It was reported some weeks ago that the FBI had learned that Thomas G. Doty, 34, of Kansas City, Mo., of the crash victims, bought some dynamite and about $300,000 of life insurance payable to his wife. He also faced prosecution on charges of armed robbery and concealment of a dangerous weapon. Friends said Doty talked of killing himself rather than face the criminal charges.

122 - Geneva Greenwood Fraley, 34, described as one of Doty's business associates, also was among the victims. The Continental flight, a Boeing 707 jet, left Chicago for Kansas City and, en route, detoured slightly from its planned route to skirt a belt of severe thunderstorms.

123 - However, the CAB report said that at the time of the explosion, at 9:17 p.m., the plane was flying through clear skies. It concluded the weather was not a factor. Among the evidence of an explosion were deposits of a gray-black material in the lavatory, the fact that the skin of the aircraft was pushed straight out over rivet heads in the area, and there were jagged perforations of metal fragments. The board clinched the question by reporting that these results were caused by dynamite.

124 - Job Totals Could Signal Tax Slash

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Job totals for July—one of the major economic indicators on which President Kennedy plans to base his decision on whether to ask Congress for a quick tax cut—are announced today.

125 - Preliminary indications were that the new figures would show some improvement over the June job totals, but perhaps not enough to dispel a widespread belief the economy is stuck on dead center. The statistic being most closely watched is the seasonally adjusted unemployment rate. In June, it edged up slightly to 5.5 per cent of the work force.

126 - This was taken as an unfavorable sign, since the rate had remained steady for many months. Another idle rate increase in July would surely be regarded as ominous. The June totals showed a record 69,539,000 employed and 4,463,000 unemployed. The employed total is on the verge of crossing the 70 million mark for the first time in history.

127 - Today's job figures will be added to other government statistical reports that Kennedy and his advisers have under study in search of a clear indication of which way the economy is heading.

128 - The President has said it is difficult to determine whether the economy is merely pausing on the way toward a gradual upward climb or actually has become stalled with a danger of turning downward again.

129 - Kennedy has already promised to propose an across-the-board cut in individual and corporate income taxes effective next Jan. 1. The question is whether faster tax relief is necessary now.

130 - Bomb Explosion in UPI Bldg.

LIMA, Peru (AP) - A small homemade bomb exploded Monday night at the door of the United Press International office on the sixth floor of a local office building.

131 - Damage was slight. Glass was broken, and a messenger received minor cuts. There was no immediate indication of who did the bombing or what the motive was.

132 - Officer Retires

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) - The retirement today of Col. John M. Palmer, commander of the Pine Bluff Arsenal, was marked by formal ceremony at the arsenal. Palmer, a veteran of 31 years in the Army, took charge of the arsenal after serving as commander of the Chemical Corps Training Command at Fort McClellan, Ala.

133 - Money for Airports

WASHINGTON (AP) - Allotment of $453, 975 in matching funds to 11 Arkansas cities for use in airport work was announced Tuesday by the Federal Aviation Agency. The cities and the funds the FAA says they are to get are: Little Rock, $11,300; North Little Rock, $11,600; Crossett, $33,000; Flippin, $34,700; Malvern, $59,800; Monticello, $19,900; Morrilton, $17,700; Mount Ida, $63,875; Osceola, $56,500; Rogers, $27,000 and Springfield, $18,000.

134 - Osceola Airport

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) - The Federal Aviation Agency has approved $58,500 in matching funds for construction of a municipal airport at Osceola, Rep. E. C. Gathings announced Tuesday. The airport will have a 2,700 foot turf runway and will cost an estimated $113,000 Gathings said.

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's traffic fatalities during the first half of this year rose to an all-time high, the National Safety Council reports, and predicts that if the trend continues the 1962 toll may reach a record 40,000.

142 - The council said Monday 18,

120 persons were killed in traffic accidents of 1962, an increase of 1,210 from the total of 16,910 during the same period a year ago. This was a climb of 7 per cent compared with a rise in traffic of only 5 per cent.

College Star, Pro Game Is Friday Night

By JOE MOOSHIL

Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—As if facing the Green Bay Packers, National Football League champions, was not enough, the College All-Stars will have to go into the game Friday night without the services of Ernie Davis.

Davis, the All-America from Syracuse and last year's Heisman Award winner, will miss the game because of a possible case of infectious mononucleosis.

Davis' loss, however, doesn't worry head coach Otto Graham too much. "This is a balanced squad," says Graham. "and we can get along despite losing one man."

Davis may be replaced by Ron Bull, the hard-running back from Baylor who was being groomed as a flanker.

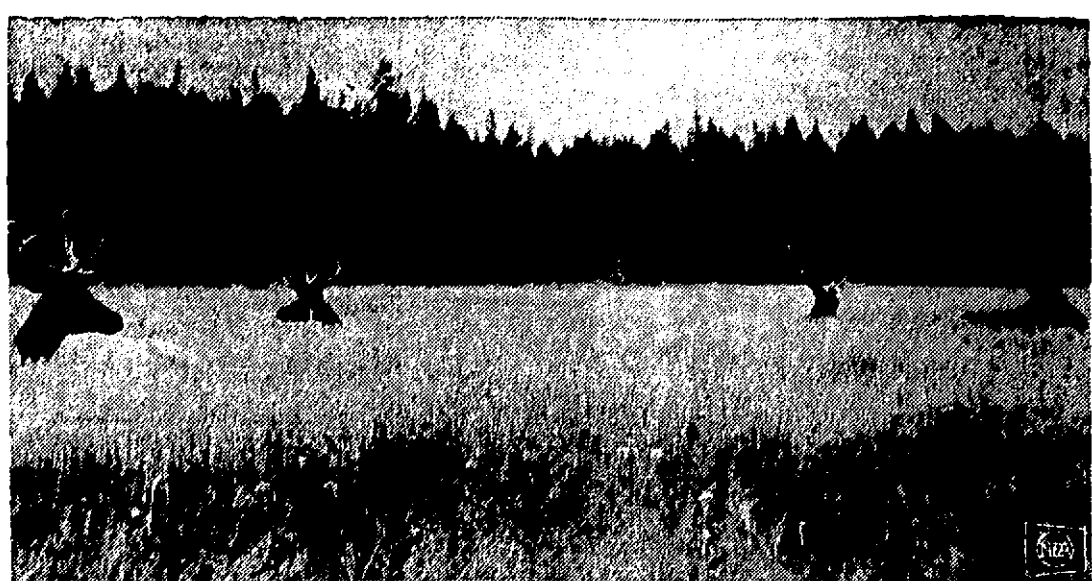

The All-Stars are 19-point underdogs and their victories are few and far between in this series. They have won eight times while the pros boast of 18 victories. Twice the games have ended in ties.

The loss of Davis may not be too great considering the theory that the collegians must pass in order to win.

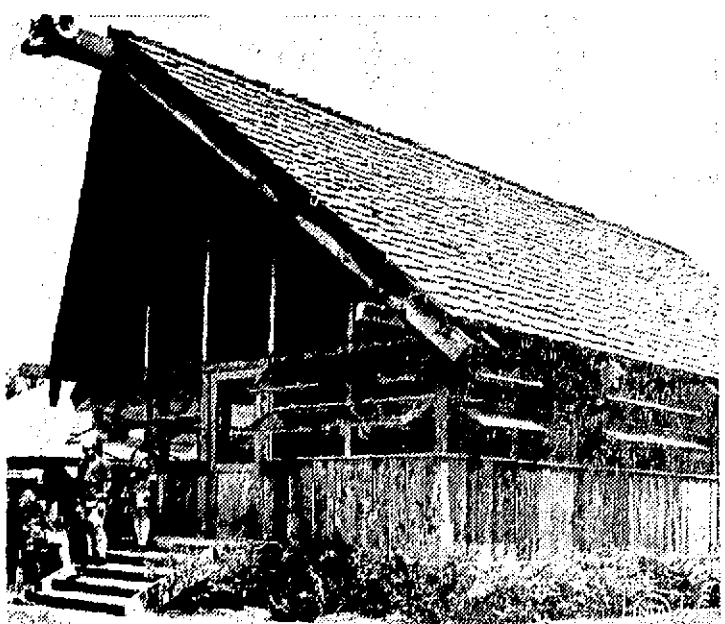

Nevertheless, Graham has said, "We can run against those Packers if we can get some blocking in front of those runners."

Graham's hopes are bolstered by the fact that he has such runners as Lance Alworth of Arkansas, Bob Ferguson of Ohio State, Earl Gros of Louisiana State, Jim Saxon of Texas, Curtis McCClinton of Kansas and LeRoy Jackson of Western Illinois.

In the passing department, the All-Stars will rely on the likes of John Hadl of Kansas, Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State and Bobby Ply of Baylor.

ALL CLEAR?—Antlered heads of four elk are raised above the tall grasses in Yellowstone National Park, Wyo., which is one of the largest wildlife sanctuaries in the world.

REPLACES TENTS—This 32 by 20-foot structure is the prototype of 57 Woodcraft Camp cabins scheduled to be constructed on a 250-acre tract at the famous Culver, Ind., Military Academy. The permanent cabins will replace the tents used during the first 50 years of the program.

PRODUCTION OF PAPER AND PAPERBOARD IN THE U. S. DURING 1960

Arkansas Sailing Club Going Good

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Grande Maumelle Sailing Club is a rather high-sounding enthusiasts who spend their spare time pampering and sailing graceful boats on Lake Maumelle.

"Don't get us wrong," said Mrs. Harold Daugherty of Little Rock, wife of the club's commodore. "This isn't a social club; we just love sailing."

Mrs. Daugherty, whose enthusiasm is catching even with landlubbers, regularly proves her devotion to the sport by acting as crew for the commodore in competition on Lake Maumelle each week end.

"That's right," she said. "It just takes two people to sail a Y-Flyer, although the boats will carry a total of eight."

The Grande Maumelle Sailing Club presently includes a fleet of 10 Y-Flyers, plus the beginnings of fleets in two other classes of boats.

Y-Flyers belong to one of several types of boats recognized by national sailing organizations. Snipes and Lightnings are two other classes which are expected to organize fleets and sail under the banner of the Grande Maumelle club. A fleet, in sailing jargon, must have at least three boats of a class registered with a national group.

Mrs. Daugherty and other club members carry on a missionary program trying to persuade others to participate in the sport.

They have three chief selling points: It's fun; the cost is no more than a good power boat rig; it's a family sport.

"The cost of a new Y-Flyer is $1,500," Mrs. Daugherty said. "And do-it-yourself sailors can build one for $600."

Sometimes two or more go in together to buy and operate a boat. Once the original purchase is made, operating costs are scant, she said. There is little upkeep, and sails last indefinitely, if properly cared for.

Quite often, as is the case of Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty's husband and wife act as skipper and crew.

Lake Maumelle apparently is the favored place for sailing in Arkansas. It's close to the state's chief population center and also provides ideal sailing conditions.

"The lake is large enough, and there usually is plenty of wind," Mrs. Daugherty said.

Unlike some of the other Arkansas lakes favored by power boaters and water skiers, Lake Maumelle is not sheltered by big mountains, so when there is a breeze, the sailors can get action.

Lake Ouachita is another spot used by sailboat fans and efforts already are being made to launch the sport on the new Greers Ferry Lake.

Although some people buy sailboats with the idea of pleasure cruising only, Mrs. Daugherty said the owners usually are drawn to racing.

The Grande Maumelle club has racing each Sunday through its spring and summer seasons with cups awarded to the winners.

Finns Rioting Against Reds
HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—Reinforced police stood guard today against new violence in the wake of four consecutive days of demonstrations against the Communist sponsored eighth World Youth Festival.

Police used tear gas, clubs and horses to break up shouting screaming crowds Monday. At one point the crowds numbered 6,000 to 7,000 people.

Few arrests were made, and most of those detained were released later. Officers said many of the demonstrators were drunk.

The demonstrations began Friday, two days before the festival opened. About 10,000 youths from 144 countries are taking part in the meeting.

The eight men jumped out of a bed of fire and jumped out, all badly burned.

The priest was arrested.

Production of paper and paperboard in the U. S. during 1960 amounted to 35,361,000 short tons, a gain of 3.8 per cent over the 34,051,000 short tons of the preceding year. Part of the increase in total production resulted from a gain in paper and paperboard exports, according to the 1962 Britannica Book of the Year.

Nationals Return to Work Today

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer
The National League goes back to work today, with a nine-week straight stretch home, and if any club is going to catch the Los Angeles Dodgers it had better hurry.

In another ten days they could be out of sight.

The rampaging Dodgers, fresh from a sweep over their closest rivals, the San Francisco Giants, and hot as a Sunday in Houston, take two cracks at the stumbling Pittsburgh Pirates tonight and Thursday, and then have the following tempting menu: Four games with the Chicago Cubs, two with the New York Mets and two with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Against those three clubs the Dodgers are a torrid 30-6 for the year.

This is obviously a fine feast to set before a team that has won eight of its last nine and boasts the winningest pitcher in the majors, Don Drysdale, 19-4; the leading hitter, (Tommy Davis, .353); the RBI leader, (Davis with 106); the stolen base leader, (Maury Wills, 51), and the hottest hitter in baseball, (Frank Howard, eight homers and 24 RBI in 11 games).

There was no action in the league Tuesday, following the second all-star game in Chicago on Monday.

In the American League, the Yankees opened a six game lead as they trounced Washington 9-5.

Yankees Win Angels Beat by Cleveland

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Los Angeles Angels today made a fond farewell to Cloud 9.

The exhilarating ride in the upper strata came to a screeching halt Tuesday night as Cleveland scored a run without a hit in the seventh inning and handed the Angels their fourth loss in five games—their worst slump since the first month of the season.

The Angels, who reached first place in the American League on July 4, lost three of four at Detroit over the weekend and ran into a bunch of re-awakened Indians in the opener of their series at Cleveland.

Home runs by Willie Kirkland and John Romano supplied the punch for the Indians and dropped the Angels six games behind league-leading New York. The Yankees beat Washington 9-5.

In the only other game on the shortened AL program, Baltimore edged third place Minnesota 8-7, leaving the Twins 6½ games back of first place.

The National League was idle, taking a day off after Monday's all-star game.
